

Thursday, May 8, 2008

1. Wake up early.
2. TAKE MALARIA PILL!!
3. Take a 3 hour morning game drive.
4. Breakfast
5. You will be picked up at Ngala Safari Lodge @ 11:00am for the 1-2 hour road transfer to Exeter River Lodge.

6. Arrive Exeter River Lodge approximately 13:00pm. Nestled in the shade of a grove of Ebony trees and on the banks of the Sand River, you will find 8 individually designed and decorated ultra luxury suites each with their own private plunge pools. As your eyes gaze into the nearby savannah, magnificent views from your private patio enhance the experience of your Sabi Sand accommodation. The air-conditioned suites all have en-suite bathrooms with both indoor and outdoor showers. African colours, textures and shapes adorn the rooms and reflect Africa's culture and mood.

In the main area of the lodge, teak dining furniture, deep sofas covered in the finest linens and ornaments originating from the furthest corners of Africa create a welcoming and relaxed ambience.

Exeter is situated within the Sabi Sands Private Game Reserve which has a reputation that it offers the best game viewing you'll find in South Africa. Over 200 different species occur in abundance and the bird life is fascinating. Relax on the private deck of your Sabi Sand accommodation while viewing a herd of Elephants in the river below or perhaps a Hippo surfacing in the waters. The suites all have distinctive en-suite bathrooms and provide all the comforts you may desire.

Magnificently positioned lounges and dining areas overlook the Sand River and compliment the finest cuisine. The cuisine, complimented by the finest selection of wines lends itself to an experience as exciting as any game drive. Sumptuous cuisine, suiting all culinary tastes prepared by the Executive Chef, can be enjoyed in an open-air boma, in the dining room or even in the bush.

Back in camp after your early morning and late afternoon/evening game drives, you will be spoilt by the highest standards of service and fine cuisine to be found awaiting you.

7. Check into the lodge.
8. Lunch
9. Afternoon/evening game drive.
10. Dinner served after game drive.

